

Michaela Daphne

Parents Guide to Reading Purlieu

Chapter Nine

Chapter Nine

Parents Guide to Reading Purlieu

Question to Ask Yourself

- » Do I show my daughter that I love all of her, unreservedly and unconditionally?

Talking Points

- » Pick something non-physical about your daughter and affirm her
- » Talk to her about the concept of 'ICE' (In Case of Emergency) and encourage her to list your number under ICE and on speed dial just in case she ever needs it

Additional Resources

- » John and Stasi Eldredge: Captivating
Explores the hidden world of the feminine genius and gives insight into the intrinsic desires of every woman's heart (it helps to shed light upon why your daughter is looking for love, even in the wrong places)
- » Jerry Mitchell from Clarion-Ledger: Most Dangerous Time for Battered Women is When They Leave
- » Jacquelyn C. Campbell, PhD, RN, FAAN from Johns Hopkins University, School of Nursing: Relationship Danger Assessment
- » Virginia Sexual & Domestic Violence Action Alliance: Red Flags for Abusive Relationships
- » In Case of Emergency